WITH GUEST SPEAKER:

Robert Walls, former professional Australian rules footballer, Robert Walls is a former Australian rules footballer who represented Carlton and Fitzroy in the Victorian Football League during the 1960s and 1970s. In a playing career that spanned three decades Robert played a combined 259 games and kicked a total of 444 goals. As a coach, his greatest achievement came in 1987 when he coached Carlton to the 1987 VFL premiership, the same club he won premierships with as player in 1968, 1970 and 1972. After his coaching career ended, Walls became involved as an expert commentator on radio for AFL Nation.
